Dedication

TO MR. ARTHUR GORMAN:

In appreciation for his wonderful work with our band and for his general helpfulness around school, we, the class of 1947, sincerely dedicate our annual.

FOREWORD

Hello! My name is Otto. I just popped out of Mr. Swanton's pencil sharpener so that I could conduct a tour of G. H. S. Would you like to join me? Good! Come along with me then and as we walk down the old familiar halls together we'll revise all the happy memories of "47".

Before we start on our tour I would like to have you meet the Seniors. They are quite a gang. You've seen them around the halls. I remember the first time I met them. Would you like to hear about it? O. K. here goes. It was in "44" and I had just come to live in Mr. Swanton's pencil sharpener. They were much different then. I'm afraid you wouldn't have known them. They are very self-assured now, but then——. Well, in "44" a group of meek looking characters came to G. H. S. to begin a period of learning. No one paid much attention to them. We all thought them quite unimportant. But we were due for a surprise. That year at the C. C. C. they presented an original play called "Willy the Wallflower." It was successful. Led by their able officers, Pres. Glen Lincoln; Vice-pres. Dick Culbertson; Sec. Fred Ranney; and Treas. Dorothy Wright they sponsored several clever projects such as dances, etc. After this we had to notice them. They had begun to occupy a definite part in the school schedule.

In their Soph. year the Seniors were led by Augie Stricker, Dean Chapman, Doris Lawrance, and Morris Garlick. They were predominant in many activities such as Band, Sports, and Girl's League. Again they distinguished themselves at the C. C. C. by sponsoring the telegraph booth. Several held office in many organizations and we really could not ignore them now.

We will remember them especially for the very clever Nursery dance they put on in "46". That was some dance and is remembered by many as being the outstanding dance of the year. Their officers were Bruce Rasmussen, Harold Peterman, Mary Lou Comstock, and Alma Hansen.

This is their last year at G. H. S. Their big project for this year is this annual. They are leaving it as a remembrance of them and the wonderful things that have happened this year. With Bruce Rasmussen, Dean Chapman, Mary Hansen, and Harlan Weber leading them they hail you a hearty farewell.

D. Muns — R. Fuller — L. Roell — L. Snyder

The Class of "48", led by its officers composed of President, Duane Muns; Vice-president, Ron Fuller; Treasurer, Sneezy Snyder; and Secretary, Leslie Roell, completed an unusually successful year. We have as our representatives to the Student Council two very capable aldermen, Dorothy King and Jim Nord.

During the year, members of the Junior Class participated on many committees and in many organizations, notably all varsity sports.

This year the Juniors, with the advice of Miss Sellers, Miss Guilford, and Miss Charron, organized a valuable check room for the benefit of the basketball spectators.

After finishing a successful Freshmen year, the Sophomores started 1946-1947 out right by electing as their officers President, Jim Sprague; Vice-President, "Peanut" Burk; Secretary, Jeanne Nelson; and Treasurer, Bill Highfield. The class participated in many activities such as sports, band, Girls' League, and "G" Club. The finishing touch to the year's work was the very successful after game dances which they sponsored. This class shows a lot of promise and we know that Otto will be seeing them doing big things next year.

Putting their green beanies on more firmly, the freshmen (Class of 50) elected for class officers: Bill Pearl, president; Grant Coombs, vice-president; Roy Stricker, treasurer; and Pat Peterson, secretary.

The after game dance sponsored by the freshmen gathered a large crowd of Greenville and Hastings teen-agers. After working hard all year, the froshers were able to carry off a hatful of awards in athletics, forensics, agriculture, and scholarship at the May Honor Banquet. It was really quite a year!

“G” CLUB

Girls' Athletics in Greenville have, in recent years, been sponsored by the Girls' League and Physical Education Department in the form of an intramural program. This year 98 girls organized the "G" Club and elected the followings officers: President, Shirley Hansen; Vice-president, Louise Snyder; Secretary, Esther Senn; Treasurer, Dorothy King. Miss Beulah Bauman, girls' physical education teacher, was the club advisor. Three other faculty members, Miss Guilford, Miss Charron, and Miss Kistler, assisted in the program.

Many activities were offered as a part of the fall and winter program. They were modern dance, advance tap, basketball, tumbling, badminton, volley ball, ping pong, and bowling. Springtime brings these activities: archery, tennis, softball, track, hiking, and swimming.

The girls had many interesting activities and excursions during the year. In November, sixty girls visited a modern dance class at the "Y" in Grand Rapids. In December, forty girls enjoyed seeing a swimming meet between University of Michigan, Michigan State College, and Michigan Normal College. There were also diving, synchronized swimming, and basketball demonstrations at this Sports Clinic which was held at Ann Arbor.

MAJORETTES

The majorettes salute the Greenville High School Band under the direction of Mr. Gorman.

These five twirlers, who form the head ranks of the band, stand ready to introduce our 80 piece band. They are Caroll Williamson, Joyce Irish, Milly Simpson, Mary Jane Senn, Glenna Godfrey, and Marilyn Briggs.

BAND

As each year passes, the band continues to grow both in size and excellence. This is due to the hard work and patience of its conductor, Arthur Gorman, who is doing a commendable job and who is very much respected by the student body. He has been ably assisted by the officers who are: President, Terry Highfield; Vice-President, Dan Dibble; Secretary, Leslie Roell; Treasurer, Kitty Filgas.

This year has presented many opportunities for the band to play; not only for all the athletic contests and pep assemblies, but also for various concerts. The more important engagements were a performance for the M. E. A. Convention at the Civic Auditorium in Grand Rapids and later winning a division rating at the Regional Festival in Grand Rapids. The most talented members found time to practice orchestration and to establish a very fine dance band which played for the "Band Bounce." This dance was sponsored by the Greenville P. T. A. Council to raise funds for the purchase of new instruments.

The band members and its conductor are continually striving to develop the best class B band in the state each year, through the development of their musicianship and the improvement of their equipment, they came closer to that goal.

DANCE BAND

Another extra-curricular activity and a very popular one with the students, was the high school dance band. Under the direction of Mr. Gorman, and accompanied at the piano by Miss La Vegne, the band won for themselves much deserved fame.

The members of the band offered their talents to the students on several occasions. Among them were the Band Bounce and the May Honor Dance.

FOOTBALL 1946

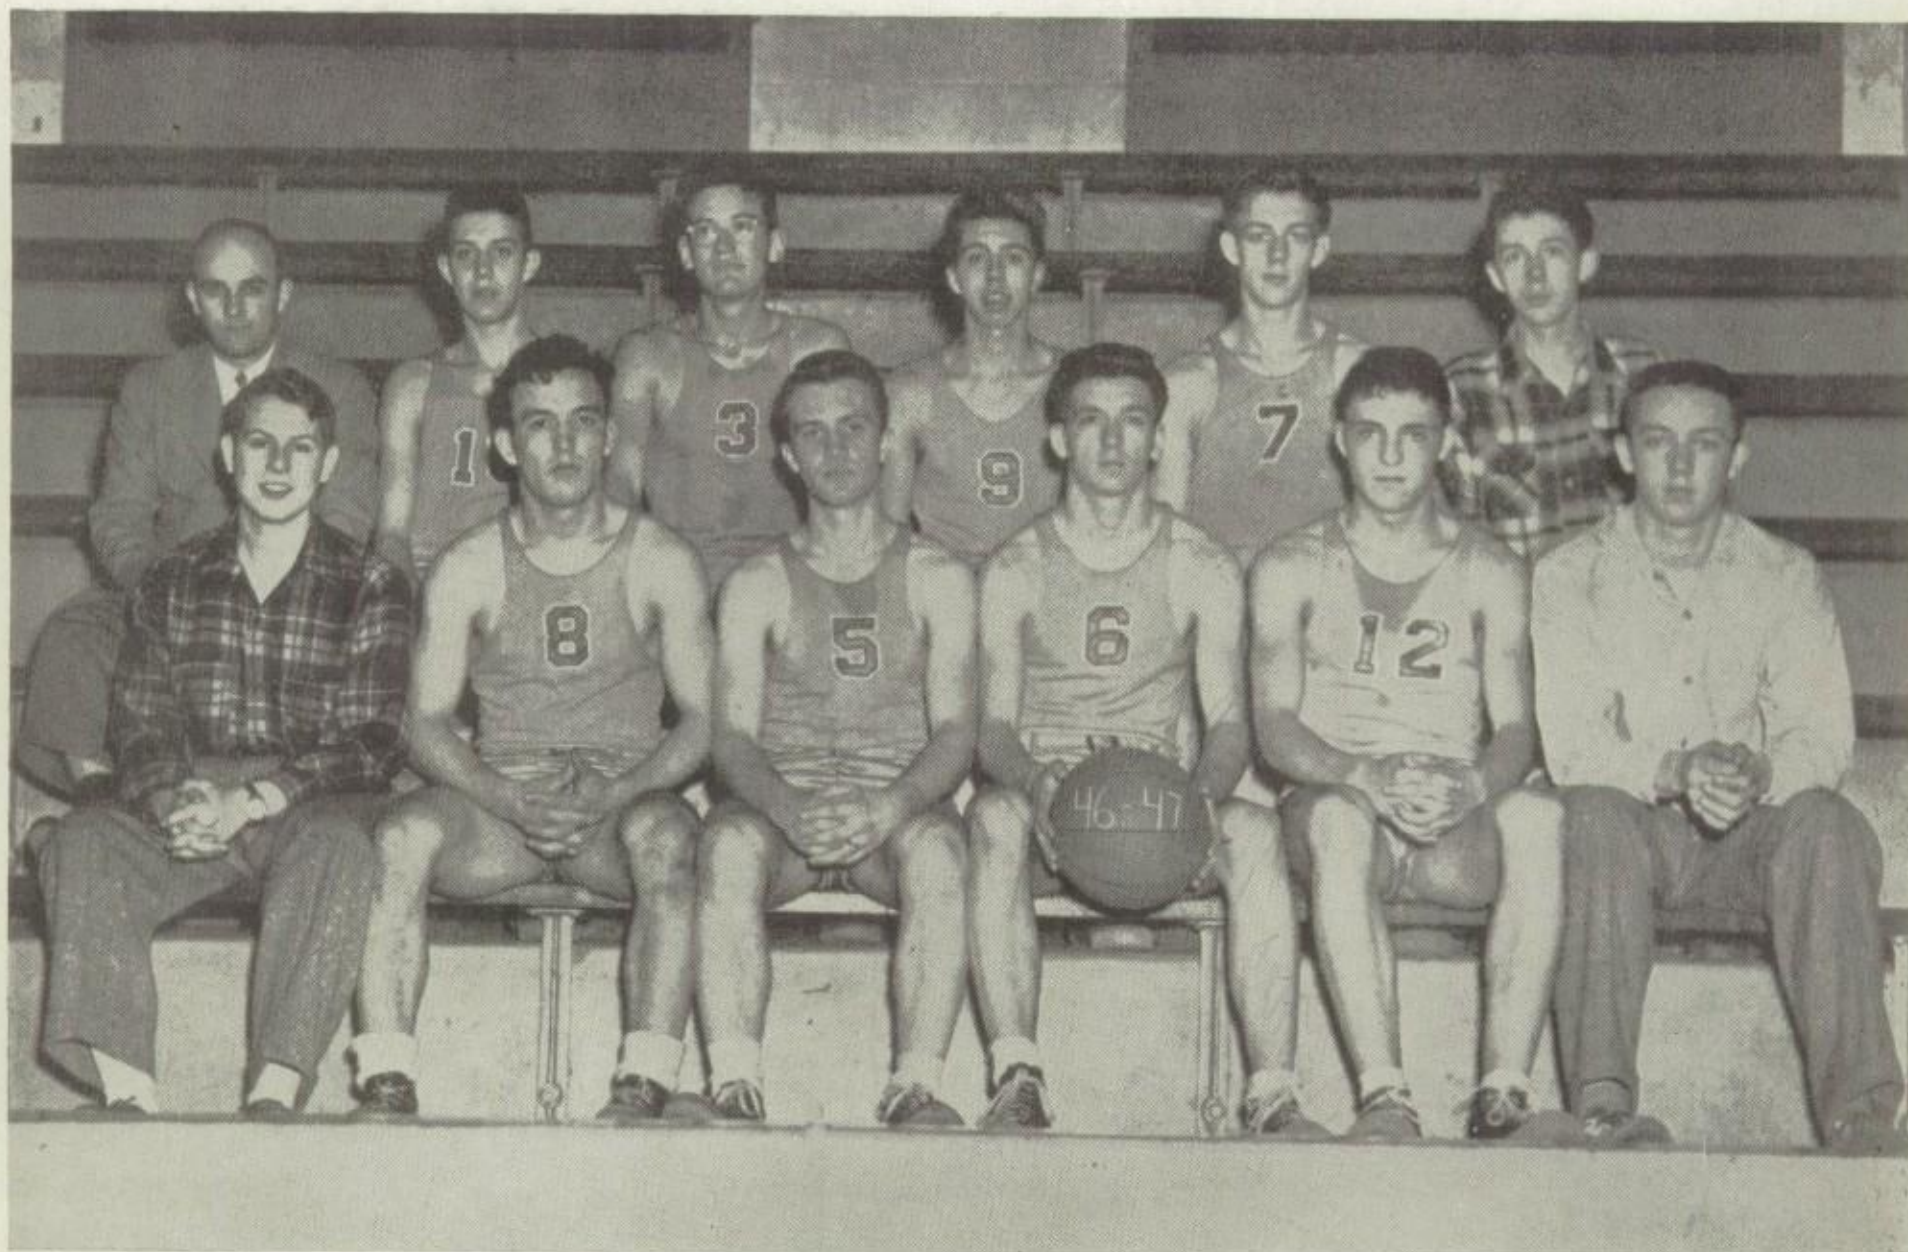

Seven straight victories with but one loss gave Greenville a most successful "46" season. The team was sparked to success by great backfield play and one of the toughest lines in the conference. Only three seniors will be lost to next year's team. They are Augie Stricker, Ronald McMeeken, and Bruce Rasmussen. Greenville placed two men, Berdie Bow and Louis Smith, on the West Central League Conference team. Smith also received honorable mention on the All-State team.

BASKETBALL

First Team Basketball

A jinx followed the Greenville High School basketball teams throughout most of the season as only five games were won. One senior, Captain Harold Peterman, will be lost to the '47-'48 team. Peterman along with Highfield were Greenville's electives for the conference team.

After a period of three years track reappeared on our spring sports schedule. The coach question had been the problem, but under Coach Ockstadt Greenville won three out of five games in the 1946 season.

In addition to a hard-working varsity squad, a group of Freshmen won the Freshmen Conference at Hastings. These fellows should make a varsity squad that will be tough to beat in the coming years.

With an inexperienced pitching staff the G. H. S. baseball team, coached by John Heinzelman, went through the 1946 season with three wins and eight losses. The fact that many young players won letters is encouraging to our 1947 team.
